

3rd Grade Summer Reading

Students are asked to read 2 novels. Your child may choose the two novels he/she would like to read. There is not a formal written exercise; however, students will be asked questions about the two novels they read during the summer upon their return to school. It is suggested that your student reads about 30 minutes a day to keep their reading skills strong.

Below are some suggested novels from previous students that your child may be interested in:

Captain Underpants by Dav Pilkey

Any of the “Dog Man” series by Dav Pilkey

Any of the “Cam Jansen” Series by David Adler (Mysteries)

The Great Fire by Jim Murphy (about the Chicago Fire)

Any of the “Bad Kitty” Series by Nick Bruel

Any of “My Weirder-est School” Series by Dan Gutman

Any of the “American Girl” series by

Any of the “Amelia Bedelia” series by Peggy Parish

Any of the “Ivy and Bean” series by Annie Barrows

Smile by Raina Telgemeier

Sisters by Raina Telgemeier

Ghosts by Raina Telgemeier

Any of Beverly Clearly novels

Any of the “The Adventure of the Bailey School Kids” series by Debbie Dadey (Both boys and girls enjoy)

Any of the “Judy Moody” Series by Megan McDonald

Trapped in a Video Game by Dustin Brady

Code 7: Cracking the Code for an Epic Life by Bryan R. Johnson